SUGAR SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION

Receives Undivided Attention of the Senate.

CRITICISES ITS PROVISIONS

Senator Bristow Objects to Clause Providing a Duty on Sugar Admitted Into the Philippines Equal to That Brought Into the United States and the Exemption of Three Hundred Thousand Tons of Philippine Sugar From Duty.

Washington, June 15.—Sugar was the stirring subject before the senate. It was brought to the front in connection with the consideration of the finance committee's substitute for the house provision of the tariff bill regulating the admission of Philippine articles into the United States and it continued to receive practically the undivided attention of the senate throughout the day.

During the first hour that the amendment was before the senate there was some discussion of the effect of the provision on the tobacco interests of Connecticut, but an amendment looking to the introduction of Connecticut tobacco into the Philippines for wrappers had the effect of relieving the situation in that quarter.

Immediate attention was then directed to the clauses providing a duty on sugar admitted into the Philippines equal to that on sugar brought into the United States and exempting 300,000 tons of Philippine sugar from duty when brought into the United States. Senator Bristow criticised both provisions and his criticisms opened the way for a general debate, which was participated in on the one side by Messrs. Bristow and Clapp and on the other by Senators Aldrich and Lodge.

Would Benefit Sugar Trust.

It was contended on the one hand that the two provisions combined were intended to promote the interests of the American sugar trust and not to benefit the Philippine producers, while it was argued by the supporters of the provision that to admit sugar into the islands free of duty would be to open the way for its admission into this country. It was also argued that the sugar producers of the Philippines would be directly benefitted by the admission of their sugar into the United States without requiring the payment of a duty on it.

The only vote taken during the day session was on an amendment by Mr. Bristow admitting sugar into the Philippines free of duty. It was lost, 11 to 49.

Senator Stone of Missouri gave notice that he would soon offer an amendment declaring for the independence of the Philippine Islands within fifteen years, an agreement having been meanwhile arrived at with the world powers for the maintenance of the independence of the islands.

It was freely stated around the senate chamber that the Philippines paragraph had the endorsement of President Taft in his own handwriting and late in the day Senator Aldrich stated that it had been endorsed by the president. Senator Clapp expressed incredulity on that point.

The wantering of interest in the tariff proceedings was evidenced by the small attendance in the galleries when the senate met at night. Not more than half of the membership was present.

Discussion of the Philippine free trade section of the bill was resumed by Mr. Stone of Missouri. He declared that congress had no constitutional right to assess import duties on products from the Philippine Islands.

Woman President of Organization.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 15.—Miss Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago, is the president of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections for 1910. The election was unanimous. This is the first time in the history of the conference that a woman has been at the head of the organization. The other officers elected were first vice president, F. H. Nibcker, Glen Mills, Pa.; second vice president, Ansley Wilcox, Buffalo, N. Y.; third vice president, Judge W. H. Delacey, Washington; general secretary, Alexander Johnson, Fort Wayne, Ind.

New York to Seattle Race.

Rawlins, Wyo., June 15.—The Ford car No. 2 has reached Rawlins. It passed the Shawmut at Hanna, Wyo., and is now leading in the New York to Seattle race. Ford car No. 1 has reached Medicine Bow.

YOUNG BOYS ARE WOUNDED

Two St. Paul Youths Shot by Man They Annoyed.

St. Paul, June 15.—Two young boys were shot at Bates avenue and Plum street by William Seabolt, a plasterer, as the result of a long feud between the Plum street resident and a crowd of boys that annoyed him. Both boys will probably recover. Seabolt was taken to the Margaret street police station.

A crowd of boys have been annoying residents for some time along Bates avenue about the corner of Plum street and especially William Seabolt, according to the police. This has consisted in the ringing of bells and pounding on windows and like depredations.

A crowd of boys gathered about on Dayton's Bluff and proceeded about their boyish pranks at the different houses. They made for Seabolt's house later in the evening. Seabolt had repeatedly warned them and that gave spice to the adventure.

They gathered about Seabolt's house about 9 o'clock. They had not long to wait for an answer. Seabolt suddenly appeared at the back door with a shotgun. He discharged this in the direction of the noise.

THIEF TAKERS IN SESSION

Buffalo, N. Y., June 15.—Yeggmen and crooks of high and low degree will give this city a wide berth during the next three days, for the city will shelter within its gates the leading foes of crime throughout the country. The International Association of Police Chiefs will be in session here until Wednesday.

Addressess relating to various phases of the war against criminals will occupy most of the time of the convention. W. H. Chandler, chief of police of Knoxville, Tenn., is the present head of the association.

Fight a Ten-Round Draw.

ADmits KILLING HIS CHUM

Boy Confesses That He Shot His Friend.

Flora, Ill., June 15.—Heinrich Carmichael, fourteen years of age, confessed that he shot and killed Raymond Harmon, son of Dr. John Harmon, president of McKendree college, last Friday.

Carmichael said he and Harmon returned from a hunting trip and that both had forgotten the gun which Carmichael carried was loaded. Inside the farmhouse he pointed the gun at Raymond in the act of playing robber and expected his companion to hold up his hands. Harmon obeyed, but Carmichael fired and his chum fell dead. Carmichael was not held.

AGAINST EXPELLING FOSTER

Baptist Ministers' Conference Votes by Large Majority.

Chicago, June 15.—The Baptist ministers' conference by a vote of 37 to 14 decided against expelling from membership Professor Burman Foster of the University of Chicago, whose published utterances on religious subjects have been criticised by Baptist ministers as being heretical.

The show of strength came on a resolution offered as a substitute for the resolution to expel Professor Foster. The adopted resolution is a reaffirmation by the assembled ministers of their allegiance to the Baptist church, of their belief in the deity, the bible and the cardinal doctrines of orthodoxy, regardless of the beliefs or words of Professor Foster or any others.

The adoption of the substitute resolution defeated the original resolution and without further discussion the conference adjourned.

Gotch Defeats Jenkins.

Des Moines, Ia., June 15.—Before a large crowd, Champion Frank Gotch easily and decisively defeated Tom Jenkins, former champion of the world, in two straight falls at the state fair grounds. Gotch won the first fall in 14 minutes, 28 seconds with a reverse Nelson, and the second fall with a crotch and half-Nelson, in 7 minutes, 53 seconds.

JAP PROTESTS TO GOVERNMENT

HIS PRIVATE PAPERS SEIZED

Members of the Editorial Staff of a Japanese Paper in Honolulu Asserts That Action of Territorial Authorities Was Without Due Process of Law—Sheriff Henry Admits Search Was Made by Force of Arms.

Honolulu, June 15.—The situation growing out of the indictment by the grand jury of the seventeen leaders in the strike of the Japanese plantation laborers was given an international turn when M. Negoro of the editorial staff of the Jiji, a local Japanese publication, who was taken into custody when the offices of that paper were raided by the authorities last Friday, made formal complaint to the Japanese foreign office at Tokio of the violation of his treaty rights.

The alleged violation of his rights as a Japanese subject, guaranteed under the treaty between the United States and Japan, he sets forth in his complaint, consists in the search of his office and the seizure of his private papers and documents by the territorial authorities without due process of law.

Territorial Sheriff William Henry admits that the search and seizure were made by force of arms and without search warrants or process of law, but claims that the papers seized contained evidence of criminal purpose and that the courts of the territory are open to Negoro for redress if he has been damaged.

Negoro was rearrested, together with Y. Sogo, Y. Tazaka and K. Kawamura of the editorial staffs of the Nippu and the Jiji, upon indictments returned by the grand jury charging them with conspiring by indirect sinister and unlawful methods and means of intimidation, inciting to riot and threatened violence to prevent and hinder the Honolulu, Oahu, Ewa, Waialua and Kahuku plantations from carrying on their business.

Strikers attacked and seriously stabbed a Japanese restaurant keeper at Kahana for having refused to furnish them with food. The place is distant and inaccessible, but the sheriff has started for the scene to make an investigation. Most of the Japanese have returned to work on the Ewa and Waialua plantations and there are full forces of strike-breakers on the Honolulu and Oahu plantations.

It is reported from Hilo that the Japanese there have selected a delegation to come to this city and join in the formal demand upon the planters' association for an increase in wages to $1 a day.

RIFLES IN PIANO BOXES

Supposed to Be Destined for Venezuelan Revolutionists.

Norfolk, Va., June 15.—Packed in piano boxes and evidently ready for shipment, a quantity of rifles and ammunition, believed to be destined for Venezuelan revolutionists, was discovered at Franklin, Va. The rifles are said to be a part of a consignment of 15,000 Mauser weapons shipped from New York to St. Louis and back to Franklin billed as pianos and packed to weather the trip to South America. The filibuster suspect steamer Nanticoke was lying near Franklin and in the back water below the steamer was her consort, the tug Dispatch.

The revenue cutter Pamlico is blockading the two suspects and it is not believed that either could pass her even in the darkness. Orders have been issued from Washington to seize the vessels in case either should lift anchor.

The Nanticoke is not built for deep sea navigation, but the Dispatch could navigate far off shore and the officers in charge of the situation believe that the plan of the filibusters was to transport the arms to another steamer at sea.

"I hear your son is achieving great success in his stage career."

"Yes," replied the architect.

"I should have thought he would have entered your profession."

"Well, it amounts to the same thing. We both make money by drawing good houses."—Stray Stories.

Leper Patient Escapes.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 15.—Adelado Aquiro, a leper patient at the county hospital, escaped from the hospital by means of a rope made of twisted bed sheets. He has not been found.

"MICHAEL'S"

EXTORTIONISTS DEFY FEDERAL AUTHORITIES

Send Threatening Letter to an Ohio Man.

Cincinnati, June 15.—Notwithstanding Chief Postoffice Inspector Holmes and men here made eleven arrests among the leaders of the Ohio Black Hand, or Society of the Banana, last week at Cleveland, Columbus, Marion and Belfontaine, O., the extortionists returned by the grand jury charging them with conspiring by indirect sinister and unlawful methods and means of intimidation, inciting to riot and threatened violence to prevent and hinder the Honolulu, Oahu, Ewa, Waialua and Kahuku plantations from carrying on their business.

Herman Breiner, proprietor of a small lunch room, received a Black Hand letter which was mailed here Sunday night, threatening to kill him and blow up his restaurant with a bomb if he did not mail $500 to Z. Y. M., general delivery, Newport, Ky. This is the third letter Breiner has received from the Black Hand. He is remaining away from his place of business, terror stricken.

Strikers attacked and seriously stabbed a Japanese restaurant keeper at Kahana for having refused to furnish them with food. The place is distant and inaccessible, but the sheriff has started for the scene to make an investigation. Most of the Japanese have returned to work on the Ewa and Waialua plantations and there are full forces of strike-breakers on the Honolulu and Oahu plantations.

It is reported from Hilo that the Japanese there have selected a delegation to come to this city and join in the formal demand upon the planters' association for an increase in wages to $1 a day.

REVIEWS THE TESTIMONY

Assistant Prosecutor O'Gara Argues in the Calhoun Case.

San Francisco, June 15.—John G. O'Gara, assistant prosecutor in the bribery trial of Patrick Calhoun, had submitted one-half of the argumentative case against the president of the United Railroads when his address before the jury was concluded at the end of an entire court session.

Mr. O'Gara's address was a dispassionate review of testimony offered during the past two months by scores of witnesses. In reviewing Mr. Ford's alleged connection with Abraham Ruef and the bribery of the supervisors in 1906 he said:

"Why did not Tiley L. Ford come here and hold up his right hand and swear that he was not guilty of paying this fund of $200,000 to Ruef?"

"This is assigned as misconduct on the part of the prosecution," said Stanley Moore of the defense, interrupting. "He knows that Mr. Ford has been here and could have been called by his side as a witness."

A spirited argument involving the legal right of the prosecution to make such a reference ensued and Judge Lawlor, disregarding repeated protests, directed Mr. O'Gara to proceed.

Turned Down.

"May I ask how you earned your first salary?" inquired a reporter who was interviewing a celebrated statesman.

"I earned it, sir," said the great man, "by doing just what you are doing now. I was deputed to interview a man, and it may interest you to know that I got a good deal more information out of him than you're likely to get out of me!"

An Unfounded Rumor.

"Mrs. Muchmore told me," said Mrs. Oldcastle, "that the new minister came in his vestments when he officiated at your daughter's wedding."

"It ain't true," replied her hostess as she flung one of her ropes of pearls over the back of a ninety dollar rocking chair. "We brought him over in our automobile."—Chicago Record-Herald.

GREAT CHURCH CONVENTION

Twenty-five Millions Represented at Presbyterian Alliance Meeting.

New York, June 15.—One of the most important religious gatherings of recent years in the number of persons represented is that of the world's Presbyterian alliance, which began in this city today. In it are represented five continents, ninety separate denominations and nearly 25,000,000 members. The meeting is known officially as the ninth quinquennial council of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System. To facilitate matters the alliance is generally referred to as the Pan-Presbyterian alliance.

The meeting will last ten days, during which subjects of great moment to the Protestant world will be discussed. Addresses have been announced upon "The Pre-existence of Christ," "Our Lord's Virgin Birth," "Our Lord's Resurrection," "The Newer Phases of Theological Training," "The Recent Testimony of Archaeology to the Scriptures" and on many other similar theological questions. In addition the attitude of the churches represented on marriage and divorce, temperance, church union and other questions of the day will be discussed.

England, Scotland, France, Italy, Arabia, Canada and other countries have sent delegates to the convention, as well as the United States. The theologians assembled here are numerous among the leading exponents of Protestant thought in their respective countries, and their views will be read with interest throughout the world. Additional interest is lent to this Presbyterian convention by the fact that this year marks the five hundredth anniversary of the birth of John Calvin, who is looked upon by Presbyterians as the founder of their church. Two days of the convention are to be devoted to addresses upon the life and works of Calvin.

IN TURPENTINE TRUST CASE

Officials of American Naval Stores Company File an Appeal.

New Orleans, June 15.—Another chapter was added to the record in the so-called "turpentine trust" prosecution when officials of the American Naval Stores company, recently convicted in the federal court at Savannah, Ga., on the charge of entering into a conspiracy in restraint of trade, filed an appeal in the United States circuit court of appeals here.

The appellants are E. S. Nash, president; Spencer P. Shatto, chairman of the board of directors; George M. Boardman, treasurer, and J. F. Meyers, vice president of the company, and Carl Moller, general manager of the National Transportation and Terminal company of Jacksonville, Fla.

The assignment of errors upon which the appeal is based contains fifty-three allegations, among them that the verdict was presented against the defendants as individuals and that no mention was made of their connection with the American Naval Stores company.

Missionary Conference Ends.

Clifton Springs, N. Y., June 15.—The twenty-sixth annual conference of the International Missionary Union was brought to a close with the election of the following officers: President, Rev. J. T. Gracy; vice president, Rev. J. Summer Stone; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. J. Bostwick; treasurer, Rev. C. P. Merritt.

BLOODY BATTLE WAGED ON STREET

Two Men Killed and Five Others Injured.

Meadville, Miss., June 15.—Two men are dead, two were perhaps fatally wounded and three others slightly injured due to a bloody street battle here waged by parties to a bitter feud that had been previously marked with tragedy. As a result of the affair, feeling here runs high and state troops were rushed to Meadville from Brook Haven to guard against the possibility of rioting. Those killed were:

Dr. A. M. Newman, clerk of the chancery court of Franklin county; Silas G. Reynolds.

Dr. Lenox Newman, a son of one of the slain men, is believed to have been fatally injured, and Herbert Apwhite, an attorney, may not recover as the result of his wounds. Emmett Newman, brother of Lenox, was shot in the leg. The three were taken to Natchez for medical treatment after having been formally placed under arrest.

FOR RED MEN'S CONVENTION

State Meeting of the Order to be Celebrated by Writeup of City and County

The Daily Dispatch has made arrangements with the local lodge of the Improved Order of Red Men to publish a souvenir edition upon the occasion of the meeting of the State Lodge of Red Men in this city on August 10, 1909. The Red Men will distribute a large number of this issue free to their guests, believing this to be a good way to advertise the advantages and resources of our city and county. The publishers will distribute copies of this edition throughout the city, placing one in each house, thus making it an excellent advertising medium.

The business men and other citizens are earnestly requested to assist in making the edition a complete index of the business life of the city by inserting an advertisement therein.

The writeup feature will be one of most thorough in the history of the city and it is the aim to make it very complete, especially in the way of setting forth the resources of the county from an agricultural and mineral standpoint and Mr. Talcott, the reporter, who has the writeup work in charge will welcome any facts helping to prove the profit in farming in the county, or other matter germane to such a writeup.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, a prescribed local remedy, but by continually failing to cure it, the local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses of one to two drams, and applied directly to the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

MONUMENT OF A PLAINSMAN.

Inscription Found on Kansas Rock Carved in 1852 Marks a Grave.

A cattlemen sitting on a flat limestone ledge in Stanton county, Kan., a few days ago noticed rude letters cut into the ledge, says a Johnson (Kan.) dispatch. He left off counting his cattle and laboriously cleaned the stone. What he read was this:

"W. H. McLennan, frozen, Nov. 13, 1852."

This ledge was found in Stanton county, Kan., section 12, range 43, township 29. It is supposed that some plainsman was caught in a storm and died there, leaving the simple inscription on the aged old rock to monument his undug grave.

No Peach Basket For Mrs. Taft. Mrs. Taft has made simplicity the prevailing note in fashions in Washington. She wears few jewels. Her frocks never are elaborate, and she has shunned any suggestion of the peach basket hat. Her example, of course, has been followed, as was that of Mrs. Roosevelt when she was in the White House. Mrs. Taft's spring and early summer hats have been of lingerie or straw. She has shown partiality for sheer linens, which are embroidered and trimmed with heavy lace. Since she became mistress of the White House few Parisian gowns have been worn in the capital.

ELIOT ON HAPPINESS.

All Have Equal Chance, Harvard's Ex-President Tells Missouri Graduates. Charles W. Eliot former president of Harvard university, who delivered the principal address at the commencement exercises of the University of Missouri the other day, said in part:

"The most valuable element in a feasible equality is equality before the law and all agents of the law, and this element is precious just because it tends to make the pursuit of happiness free and secure. The American democracy, which should make the pursuit of happiness free and secure to all, is far from having accomplished this result.

"It can do so, however, without seeking to establish among men a monotonous, tiresome and unnatural equality, for happiness is fortunately a state of mind quite independent of condition as regards wealth or the habitual occupation and of mental gifts. It is a product of health, serviceableness, loyalty, security, amiability and a good standing among one's fellows.

"In a democracy all sorts and conditions of men should be equally free and secure in the pursuit of such happiness, but all experience proves that the humble, quiet, wholesome people whose simple, dutiful lives will not long be remembered have as good a chance as anybody to win it."

A PLEASANT SOCIAL EVENT

Reception Tendered Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Koop by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Koop Monday Evening

One of the pleasantest social affairs of the season was the reception given to Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Koop by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Koop at their residence, 323 North Broadway Monday evening. The house was handsomely decorated for the occasion, white and green prevailing in the parlor, pink and green in the dining room and lilacs forming the decorations of the sitting room.

The guests were received at the door by Mesdames J. H. Koop and J. K. Pearce and Mr. W. H. Koop and were directed up the stairs at the head of which Misses Mamie Koop and Amorita Theviot directed the ladies and gentlemen to the respective dressing rooms. The receiving party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Koop and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Koop. Mrs. J. W. Koop was becomingly attired in white satin and the bride was beautiful in a gown of pink silk. The gentlemen were in conventional black.

Light refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake, wafers and salted almonds were served in the dining room which was presided over by Mrs. Bertha Theviot assisted by Misses Irene, Sadie and Gertrude Koop and Bertha Glunt. The frappe, which was served in the bay window in the north sitting room, was presided over by Misses Kittie Johnson and May Trent.

Graham's orchestra, stationed on the north porch, discoursed sweet music throughout the entire evening.

There were many handsome presents displayed, testimonials of high esteem in which the young people are held by many friends in Brainerd, several hundred of whom attended the reception.

The out of town friends present at the reception were Messrs and Mesdames H. J. Dower, W. J. Lewis and Peter Loso and Mesdames W. G. Cameron and E. Greeno, all of Staples.

VASTLY DIFFERENT.

As will be seen, it makes a great difference how one uses the muscular resources at one's command. A member of an athletic club, after swimming the length of the large tank in the basement of the institution, came out puffing and blowing, apparently exhausted.

"You don't manage your breathing right," said the swimming instructor. "It ought not to tire you so. As to the upper part of your body, including your arms, you use exactly the same muscles and in very much the same way in swimming as in sawing wood."

"No, sir!" gasped the swimmer. "When it comes to sawing wood I use the muscles of some other man."

WOMEN WHO ARE ENVIED.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at H. P. Dunn's.

BIG FAMILY REUNION.

Celebration at Benton Harbor, Mich., Planned by Peppermint King.

Fundy E. Shoudy, wealthy peppermint grower and farmer of Berrien county, Mich., announces that a national congress of Shoudys will be held in Benton Harbor some time during the warm season. Shoudy has been devoting several months planning for the biggest reunion of families ever held.

He asserts that Shoudys from every part of the United States will be present to join in a celebration which will last a week.

The original Shoudys came to the United States from Germany over a century and a half ago, there being three brothers and their families. The Shoudys claim royal blood by direct descent from one of the oldest feudal families of Germany.

The reunion is to be made the occasion of a great celebration. Prizes will be awarded to the Mr. and Mrs. Shoudy who have the largest number of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The oldest Shoudy will be given the keys of the city, and the youngest will be accorded honors just as distinguished. The fattest Shoudy, the leanest Shoudy, the richest Shoudy and the tallest Shoudy will all receive prizes.

"All persons connected by affinity or consanguinity to the Shoudy families are eligible to participate in the reunion," says Mr. Shoudy.

DAY TRAIN RUNS TO KELLIHER

Minnesota & International Passenger Train Has Changed Northern Terminus

CONDITIONS ARE SATISFACTORY

President Elliot Returned From a Trip Over Minnesota & International

The day passenger train which has been running only to Funkley will hereafter run to Kelliher. This not only gives the Kelliher branch a passenger instead of a mixed service but gives better accommodations for the train men. Some declare that this change means that eventually the Kelliher branch will be extended to Baudette or some point on the Lake of the Woods, but officials of the company have repeatedly denied any aspirations for a line in that direction.

President Elliot, General Manager Gemmell and Supt. Strachan returned Sunday night from a trip of inspection over the road, Mr. Elliot going down on the early train yesterday morning in his special car. He is said to be much pleased with conditions on the line.

JEWEL STUDED MANTEL.

Feature of Unique Los Angeles Home and Cost About $8,000.

Studded with precious stones, a mantel in the new home of George W. Haight at Los Angeles gives to the residence the distinction of being the only one of its kind in the world. The stones range from the costly diamond to the comparatively cheap turquoise and are valued at about $8,000. In all there are 4,500 of them.

Mr. Haight has been planning his home for several years. He wanted it to be unique and has succeeded.

Acting as his own architect, he has a dwelling unlike any to be found in Los Angeles, but it is to the mantel that has been given the most of his time. Without the jewels it would be considered a slight worth seeing, but with the hundreds of gems dazzling from their beds of cement which hold them in place it is a picture that can scarcely be realized.

Included in the jewel array are diamonds, garnets, amethysts, bloodstones, emeralds, agates, pearls, rubies, sardonyx, sapphires, opals, topaz, turquoise and scores of other specimens.

A Los Angeles jeweler gathered the stones, being two years in making the collection. The mantel is made of clinker bricks, being nine feet high and seven feet wide. The fireplace is archeted with bricks that were melted together in the kiln, the effect being very pretty.

Each brick in the mantel contains not less than half a dozen of the precious stones, and the mantelpiece, which is made of cement, contains the diamonds. Another feature of the mantel is the hearthstone. Where brass tacks are usually found Mr. Haight has opal heads for the tacks. Just how he is going to keep people from crushing or otherwise marring their beauty Mr. Haight does not know, but says the stones will shine so brightly that he does not expect any one to wander on to them.

That the stones will appeal to the unscrupulous was shown the first night that the house was left unoccupied. One hundred and eighty stones had been cemented to the bricks, and the following morning not one of them was to be found. Since that time Mr. Haight has had two guards in the house day and night.

In the near future Mr. Haight will formally open his home with a big reception. To each guest he will give his birthstone as a souvenir of the event. Already his friends are trying to twist the month of their birth to April, which carries with it the diamond, the most coveted of all stones.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Bijou

To say that the Bijou management is living up to its promises in securing the very best vaudeville talent obtainable, is proven conclusively by this week's offering. O'Dell and Gilmore have, according to the writer's estimation, and to the hearty approval which was awarded them last night, one of the best singing and talking acts that has ever appeared in Brainerd. The pictures are also unusually fine.

TRAIN FOR DOGS.

Made Up of Coaches Especially Equipped With Kennels.

A new feature in special railroad trains was the experiment recently made on the line between London and Manchester at the time of the great dog show in the latter city. This train was made up of coaches especially equipped with kennels, so that the valuable canines might enjoy all the comforts of home and not become unduly excited and get out of condition during their enforced journey. The animals were provided with a straw mattress and a pannikin of water, while they traveled in vans that were steam heated.

The through trip from London to Manchester lasted five hours, and a few stops were made at way stations, where other dogs bound for the show were taken aboard. A light luncheon was served en route, which consisted principally of dog biscuit, with slight portions of cooked meat scraps and bread. Filtered water only was allowed these pampered pets.

Accommodations for the owners of the dogs were arranged for on the train, and they were allowed to walk through the kennel cars and see that their prospective prize winners were entirely comfortable. This new system of conveyance is greatly appreciated by fanciers, who frequently have hesitated to send a valuable but delicate dog any considerable distance by rail under the ordinary conditions of transportation.—Harper's Weekly.

TOMB UNDER HIS LAWN.

Ocean Park, Cal., to Harbor Arizona Mining Man's Strange Whim.

Permission to build a tomb beneath the lawn of his luxurious home on St. Mark's boulevard and Coeur d'Alene street as a future burial place for himself and wife was granted the other night by the city trustees of Ocean Park, a suburb of Los Angeles, Cal., to Ennis F. Kellner, a mining man and broker.

Mr. Kellner, who is president of the Globe Bank and Savings company at Globe, Ariz., says that he has secured the consent of his neighbors to the plan and that in his will he will provide for having his body placed in a casket made of Arizona copper.

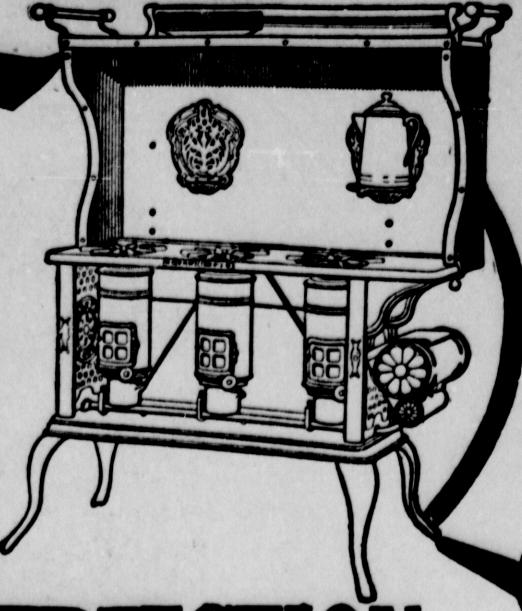

The only outward sign that graves are beneath the lawn will be a headstone or monument made from Arizona porphyry.

Monuments to Potatoes.

"When I was in Germany," said a man who travels, "I saw some people who like potatoes even better than I do. At any rate, they erect statues to them. Offenberg was the first city to erect a monument of this kind. The upper part consists of a statue of Sir Francis Drake, who introduced the plant into Europe. This as well as the pedestal is draped with garlands of the potato vine with full grown tubers. On the pedestal on one side is Sir Francis Drake's name, the second side explains what a blessing the potato has been to mankind, the third records that the statue is the gift of a certain Andrew Frederick of Strassburg, and the fourth contains the names of the erectors. A statue similar to this is in the town of Murz, and I have been told that there are other copies in many small towns."—New York Sun.

The Scenic Highway Thro' the Land of Fortune

Increased Train Service

Effective May 28, 1909, the Northern Pacific Railway augmented its passenger train service by the establishment of new trains, not alone between eastern and western terminals, but locally on main lines and branches in the several states which it serves.

It has thus placed in closer touch than ever the different sections, the various cities and towns, the thriving communities, which for twenty-six years the Northern Pacific has aided and fostered in growth and progress.

This increased efficiency of service means much to the territory tributary to the Northern Pacific Railway.

Additional lines projected or actually under construction will still further increase the scope of Northern Pacific co-operation in the development of the Northwest in the course of the next year or two.

The present through service comprises affording through equipment without change between Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Billings, Butte, Helena, Missoula, Spokane, Portland, Tacoma, Seattle and Puget Sound.

Direct connections from and to Duluth and Superior. Ask for new time tables showing the increased service in detail.

ABANDONMENT THE SOLE ISSUE

Justice Dowling So Decides In the Gould Case.

INTERESTING DEVELOPMENTS

George Gould, Brother of the Defendant, Testifies, and Plaintiff is Excused From the Stand After Three Days of Searching Cross-Examination—Mrs. Gould Refused to Sign the Pledge.

New York, June 15.—Abandonment will be the sole issue upon which the suit for separation brought by Katherine Clemonna Gould against her husband, Howard Gould, third son of the late Jay Gould, will be decided. This ruling was made in the supreme court by Justice Dowling after counsel for Mrs. Gould had rested the case for the plaintiff. This sweeps away several phases of the case—notably cruelty and non-support, and is a partial victory for Howard Gould. As to the charge of abandonment, the court held that this, too, might not stand unless the plaintiff was able to show that Howard Gould's stipulations for reconciliation with his wife were unreasonable. This phase of the case will next be argued.

Developments in the case during the day were perhaps the most interesting in the trial. George Gould, a brother of the defendant, testified and Mrs. Gould was excused from the stand after three days of searching cross-examination.

After the case for the plaintiff was rested, Delancey Nicholl, for the husband, made the usual motion to dismiss the suit on the ground that the plaintiff had failed to make out a case. "There have been no evidences of cruelty," he argued. "One of the allegations is that the plaintiff was surrounded by spies. Nothing has been adduced to prove it. Then there is the Hawley incident. Nothing in that bears out the charge of cruelty."

Very well. I didn't understand." And he went composedly up the steps and was hanged again like a man.

Was Hanged Over Again.

A man who traveled extensively in India told the following interesting story: A Pathan was being hanged when the rope broke. The warden bade him go up on to the scaffold again, but he objected. "No," he said; "I was sentenced to be hanged, and hanged I've been."

"Not so, friend," argued the warden: "you were sentenced to be hanged until you were dead, and you're not dead."

It was a new view to the Pathan, and he turned to the superintendent. "Is that right, sahib?"

"Yes, that's right."

"Very well. I didn't understand." And he went composedly up the steps and was hanged again like a man.

Ancient Origin of Military Salute.

When did the military salute come into use? It certainly dates from the earlier half of the fifteenth century, says the St. James' Gazette. In the "Speculum Humanae Salvations," which was issued before the invention of printing by movable types, there is an exceedingly quaint illustration in which Abraham is represented as saluting Melchisedec. The patriarch is in mediaeval armor and apparently on guard, and it would seem that Melchisedec is bringing him refreshments of water, and the salute is distinctly the military one still in use.

Refused to Sign the Pledge.

Referring to the abandonment charge, he said Howard Gould left his wife in July, 1906, but offered to return on perfectly reasonable terms, among other things, her abstention from intoxicating liquors. Mrs. Gould, he continued, refused.

During the foregoing argument Mrs. Gould became faint, left the courtroom and did not return. Then her counsel, Clarence Shearn, began argument against the motion of the defense to dismiss. "It is cruelty," he affirmed, "for a husband, without justification, to accuse his wife of being a bad character or to entertain against her, without cause, reflection against her."

"What kind of a conspiracy was Mr. Nicholl engaged in," he asked, "when he got habits of a saloon to work in the purpose of proving Mrs. Gould a woman of bad repute? That was the acme of cruelty. Howard Gould's attempt to have his wife pledge herself not to drink in itself constitutes cruelty."

It was this clause in the agreement the husband had asked the wife to sign before he would consent to live with her again that Mrs. Gould most strongly objected to.

"What!" she had exclaimed earlier in the day, during cross-examination, "have me sign myself a drunkard? Never."

Inasmuch as the abandonment charge only is to be considered there will be no further mention of "Buffalo Bill," "Big" Hawley, the former convict, or Ed Sholes, the reputed gambler. But it still leaves open the question of Mrs. Gould's indulgence in intoxicants.

ANOTHER CHANCE FOR THAW

Will Be Given an Opportunity to Prove His Sanity.

New York, June 15.—Harry K. Thaw may have another chance to prove his sanity in his fight for release from the Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane, to which he was committed a year ago last February after his trial for killing Stanford White.

Justice William J. Gaynor of Brooklyn of the appellate division of the supreme court granted a new writ of habeas corpus, returnable before Justice Mills in the supreme court at White Plains, N. Y., on Thursday, June 17, at 10:30 a. m. The writ was issued on application of Charles Morsschauser of Poughkeepsie, Thaw's attorney.

A Mild Reproach.

One cold morning little Elsie was being bathed by her mother, and usually her bath was a great delight to her. But this morning her mother talked incessantly while she worked.

Elsie loved her dearly and tried hard to be patient. But the lecture was so tiresome! Her mother was laying out a course of conduct for the day, and it was all so old. She had heard it over and over again.

Finally she said very sweetly, but very wearily: "Please, mamma, don't talk any more. You do make such a draft!"—New York Times.

FAMOUS WOMEN IN SESSION

Leaders in Many Fields at International Convention in Toronto.

Toronto, June 15.—More than 7,000 women, living in all parts of the world, are represented at the fourth quinquennial meeting of the International Council of Women, which began its sessions in this city today. The council will remain in session two weeks, during which time it will listen to addresses by some of the ablest of the world's women.

The purpose of the International Council of Women is the provision of a means of communication between organizations of women in all countries; also to provide opportunities for the intercommunication of views on questions affecting the welfare of the individual and the community. The council owes its existence to the initiative of two American women, Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Miss Susan B. Anthony, who called together the first international convention of women in Washington in 1888.

The president of the International Council is the Countess of Aberdeenshire, wife of the viceroy of Ireland, who has been on this side of the Atlantic for two weeks seeking support for her war on tuberculosis among the poor of Ireland. The National Council of Women of the United States is represented at the sessions of the International Council by its president, Mrs. Mary Wood Swift of Berkeley, Cal.

Chicago Life Saving Sand Anchor.

A new life saving apparatus for ships includes a sand anchor to be fired ashore to fasten the line to which it is attached, regardless of the presence of persons to lend aid.

Refuge For Wild Animals.

There is a project to set aside a part of the Congo land for a national park, in which native animals will have a place of refuge.

WIND, AIRSHIP'S FUEL

MECHANICS ARE SECONDARY.

Former Chicagoan Believes He Will Set New Record With Dirigible In Atlantic Trip Next Year—For Safety the Car of His Airship Will Resemble Submarine Boat.

Joseph Brucker, who is going to cross the Atlantic next summer in an airship, dropped into Chicago the other day on his way to the International Aeronautic exposition at Frankfort-on-the-Main, where he is going to select his dirigible for what he hopes will be a history making expedition.

Mr. Brucker has his trip all planned out and sees no possible logical reason why he should not succeed. Although he is going to use a dirigible, a ship about one-third the size of Count Zeppelin's, it is the northeast trade wind and not gasoline that he is depending on for power, and it is meteorology and not mechanism that he will make the scientific basis of his trip.

"I am not a mechanician," he said. "I am a meteorologist. I have been making a study of the trade winds, and, while little is known of them in high altitudes, I believe it will be simply a matter of keeping in the current to make the passage in four days. It didn't take mariners long to discover that the air and ocean currents were of the greatest importance to them.
